Brief definition of Addiction

These children are at greater risk for: mental illness, depression, anxiety, mood disorders, health problems, learning difficulties and substance abuse.

The equilibrium of family is thrown off by the addiction. However, family learns to live out of balance when the shifting stops. When recovery comes in, the family goes through shifting again until they find a new recovery balance.

HELP FOR ADDICTED FAMILIES

Situation:

The addicted one (drug, alcohol, etc) becomes the focus of the family.

I.E. The identified “sick one”. (Eph. 6:2)

HELP FOR ADDICTED FAMILIES

Situation:

Family becomes “a family of secrets”: don’t trust (what does this do to trust in Lord, foundations of love, second guessing everything, etc.), don’t feel (‘past feeling’), don’t tell (hide sins). A family of facades (fakes) – public image vs private chaos (outward appearances vs. inner reality Matt. 23:27, 28)

HELP FOR ADDICTED FAMILIES

Situation:

Insanity surrounding the addict:

1. Hiding stashes/ finding stashes/looking for stashes
2. Where is he/she?
3. Preoccupation when they are home and when they are away.
4. When we are at home and when we are away.
5. Feelings of guilt and shame, unworthiness
6. Isolation and withdrawal from the familiar
7. Guilt and shame

HELP FOR ADDICTED FAMILIES

Actions to Help:

We may need to repent of any part we may have played in this:

(Note: Their addiction is not your fault!) ,
BUT we may have Deception, Bitterness, Evil speaking, Malice, Rage, Resentments, Hatred or other sins to face.)

(Romans 3:14; Eph. 4:21; Eph. 4:31; Gal. 5:20)

HELP FOR ADDICTED FAMILIES

Actions to Help:

Pray

(your family battle is with Satan)
(Eph. 6:12)

For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places.

HELP FOR ADDICTED FAMILIES

Actions to Help:

Safety first –

If physical, emotional, sexual abuse is happening get out! (1Cor. 7:10,11)

Now to the married I command, yet not I but the Lord: A wife is not to depart from her husband. But even if she does depart, let her remain unmarried or be reconciled to her husband. And a husband is not to divorce his wife.

HELP FOR ADDICTED FAMILIES

Actions to Help:

Let the alcoholic/addict experience the logical and natural consequences of their actions
(Num 32:23; Lk. 15: 11-32)

But if you do not do so, then take note,
you have sinned against the LORD;
and be sure your sin will find you out.
(Num. 32.23)

HELP FOR ADDICTED FAMILIES

Actions to Help:

Find trusted people who can listen, advise, and encourage you (Titus 2:4)

That they may teach the young women to be sober, to love their husbands, to love their children,

HELP FOR ADDICTED FAMILIES

Actions to Help:

Realize that the alcoholic/addict is having an emotional affair

(alcohol or drugs have become “the other woman” or “the other man”). (Eph. 5:22-33)

HELP FOR ADDICTED FAMILIES

Actions to Help:

- The alcoholic/addicts recovery is their recovery
- stop hovering and smothering
- you can't do it for them.

HELP FOR ADDICTED FAMILIES

Actions to Help:

Set limits on what is allowed in “your house”.
(Note: Until the pain of the addiction becomes greater than the pleasure of the addiction, the user will remain in their addiction.)

(2 Kings 20:15)

And he said, What have they seen in thine house?
And Hezekiah answered, All the things that are in mine house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shewed them.

HELP FOR ADDICTED FAMILIES

Actions to Help:

Make it clear that you will be there for them, but you will not help them kill themselves (Ex. 23:2; 1 Tim. 5:22).

Lay hands suddenly on no man, neither be partaker of other men's sins: keep thyself pure.
(1 Timothy 5:22)

HELP FOR ADDICTED FAMILIES

Actions to Help:

The single deciding factor on direction of the child on addiction is “a positive mentor”.
